STANDARD: Written policy, procedure and practice state that the Community Supervision Agency shall not condone any actions by community supervision staff that may constitute physical or emotional abuse of the juvenile. Acts including but not limited to, hitting, beating, shaking, cursing, threatening, binding, closeting, prolonged isolation, meal denial, and derogatory remarks about the juvenile or the juvenile's family are not acceptable. The Community Supervision Agency shall take the appropriate action in response to such unacceptable acts, including reporting suspected abuse as required in K.S.A. 38-2223

DISCUSSION: None.

NOTE: The standards and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish operational guidelines for community supervision agencies and their employees/contractors and juveniles under supervision. They are not intended to establish state created liberty interests for community supervision agencies or their employees/contractors, or supervised juveniles, or an independent duty owed by the Juvenile Justice Authority to community supervision agencies, or their employees/contractors, supervised juveniles or third parties. This standard and procedure is not intended to establish or create new constitutional rights or to enlarge or expand upon existing constitutional rights or duties.
